

WOW RACE 2 2016

WOW had their second race of the season last Thursday. Dying winds and strong tides made this race very tactical and saw yachts struggling to get back from 10 west past the entrance. Whatever glided home to pass General Jackson just before the finish line in the Racing Division, both followed by High Point just a few minutes later. Unfortunately only two cruising boats finished: Otway III had a great race, finishing just after Whatever (in racing), followed by Fly Away Sam.
